Cash Payment Terminal Paypod™ is awarded the Gold prize in Convenience Retail Awards 2022

[EN] Athens, GR, November 28th, 2022 - CubelQ Limited, an IT company provider of software solutions and systems for financial, banking and corporate institutions announces that Cash Payment Terminal, Paypod™, is awarded the Gold prize in Convenience Retail Awards 2022, in the category “Technology services & solutions for businesses / Digital Technologies & Systems”.

Paypod™ is a cash payment terminal which helps retailers to automate the cash payment process. The terminal is placed discreetly in the cash register area, on the counter top or embedded, and interfaces with the MS Windows™ based POS, taking over the full cycle of cash payments and cash returns, with an advance cash recycling technology, without requiring cashier contact with banknotes or coins.

Paypod™ accepts payments in € - Euro banknotes and coins and optional in other currencies, which the authenticity is initially validated, using a sophisticated counterfeit mechanism, EBA certified and then stored in a secure box inside the machine metal cabin. Paypod™ empowers retailers by establishing more visibility with each transaction, creating more security and improved accountability for your business, saving time and money.

The Convenience Retail Awards are organized for the first year in Greece by BOUSIAS www.boussias.com and aim to highlight the stores, products and services that respond in the most efficient way to the modern consumer's demand for easy and quick access to quality markets. The official site of the awards, available in Greek language is: <https://www.conveniencetailawards.gr/>.
